

Longwood Gardens

The Easton Branch of AAUW (American Association of University Women) is sponsoring a bus trip to Longwood Gardens on Sunday, December 13. No holiday is complete without a visit to Longwood Gardens, where more than 500,000 twinkling lights and spectacular fountain shows compose a brilliant wonderland your family is sure to love.

As you stroll through the grounds, marvel at lights strung on 40 miles of wire glowing in the trees. Large, starry snowflakes and icicles sparkle throughout the Gardens, while the continuously performing Theatre fountains present the colors of a Christmas rainbow. Enjoy the sounds of the season with special performances from local musicians, special guests and sing-alongs with The Longwood Organ.

Inside the Conservatory is a lush world of exotic flowers, cacti, bromeliads, ferns and bonsai. Each season brings a different pleasure: spring magnolias and azaleas; summer roses and water lilies; fall foliage and chrysanthemums; and winter camellias, orchids and palms.

The bus leaves from Creamery Lane, Easton, MD at 12:30 PM and arrives at Longwood Gardens in time to briefly tour the gardens before our repast from 3:00-5:00 PM. After our meal we will have time to wander the Gardens on our own and view all the lights. We will leave for home at 8:00 PM.

The cost is $130.00 and includes bus, entrance to the Gardens, meal and tips. Children aged 5-11 are $110.00. Call 410-819-3653 for reservations.

The AAUW mission is to advance equity for all women and girls, through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research.
